CHARLES-TOWN, Nov. 4.

SUNDAY last put in here, the Snow Elizabeth, of London, William Thompſon Maſter, from the Bay of Honduras, bound for Jamaica; having ſprung a Leak and been near 5 Months at Sea.

The Sarah, Capt. Geary, from this Port, for Antigua, having met with hard Gales of Wind, after being 38 Days at Sea, was obliged to put into Providence for Proviſions and Water.

By a Veſſel from Bermuda in 12 Days, we learn, that His Majeſty's Declaration of War againſt the French King had not yet reach'd that Iſland; and that they were obliged to ſend a large Privateer Scooner fitted out there to Barbados, for a Commiſſion.

On Tueſday laſt put into this Port, having ſprung her Fore-maſt in a Late Chace, the Privateer Brigt. Pliny, Capt. Benjamin Stoddard Commander; who informs us, that his was the 17th Privateer out from New-York when he left it, which is about 3 Weeks ſince; that 12 more were then fitting for the Sea, and 6 others on the Stocks, 2 of them large Ships: That the Provincials and Regulars had at laſt happily united, under the Command of Lord Loudoun, croſſed Lake George without Oppoſition, and well intrench'd themſelves in a good Camp; that our Forces there amounted to 10,000 Men; and that (when the laſt Advices came from the Camp) his Lordſhip expected to be attacked (if at all) in Two Days at fartheſt, by 7000 French; but, that it was not doubted, that, if they ſhould attack his Lordſhip (which is not improbable after their late Succeſs at Oſwego) and be defeated, he will make a vigorous Effort to gain Crown-Point,—which will be a pretty good Cloſe of the preſent Campaign.

A New York Paper of the 11th of October, mentions the Arrival there of the Hon. Edmond Atkin, Eſq; in the General Wall Packet, on his Way hither.

Our further Advices from thence are, That the Captains Abercrombie and Lewis were arrived from Hamburgh, with 500 German Recruits for Lord Loudoun's Regiment, which is to conſiſt of 4 Battalions of 1000 Men each: That Capt. Spry, in His Majeſty's Ship Fougeux, had taken and ſent into Halifax, under Convoy of the Jamaica, a French Sloop, and a Snow of Force, which was going for France with the Account of the taking of Oſwego without the Loſs of a Man, and of the Arrival of 1500 Engliſh Priſoners from thence in Canada: That Capt. Hood, in his Paſſage with the above Prizes, had alſo taken a French Brigt. and, a few Hours after his Arrival at Halifax, ſet Sail again, in Queſt of a large French Privateer Scooner: That the Hon. Tho. Pownall, Eſq; was return'd from Albany, to embark in the firſt Packet for England: That the Indians continued their Outrages in the backs Parts of Pennſylvania, Maryland, and Virginia: And, that Governor Denny, with James Hamilton, and Benjamin Franklin, Eſqrs. were ſet out to view the Frontiers; and had taken with them an Enginier (lately arrived from England) to inſpect the ſeveral Forts.

What they are doing in Virginia, will appear from the following Extract of a Letter, dated Oct. 4th.

"——— Our Aſſembly have granted Eight Thouſand Pounds, to raiſe Men for the Royal American Regiment: It is thought, we ſhall get the greateſt Number from among the Servants, 40 having inliſted in one Day at Williamſburg: This Colony is alſo, beſides the above Sum, to pay the reſpective Maſters for ſuch Time as they have to ſerve. Three Thouſand Pounds is alſo granted, for Cloathing and procuring Arms for ſome Cherokee and other Indians which (we hear) are marching to our Aſſiſtance: And, as the Cherokee's have petitioned for a Number of white Men to garriſon the Fort at Chote, Two Thouſand Pounds is granted for that Purpoſe; and all the Money put into the Governor's Hands. ——"

The Aſſembly of North-Carolina were ſtill ſitting when the laſt Poſt came away (who arrived here Yeſterday), and contriving an Aid to His Majeſty, and Methods to fill up the Royal American Regiment, which Lord Loudoun puſhed vigorouſly.

Indian Affairs in this Province begin again to wear a very pleaſing Aſpect; and it is hardly to be doubted, (while ſuch cloſe and proper Attention to them is given as hath been for ſome Time), that the Confidence and Affection of all the ſeveral Nations around us will be effectually regained, &c. The following Accounts we think may be depended upon; That Capt. Demaré, with His Majeſty's Independent Company under his Command, and the two Companies (commanded by John Stuart and John Poſtell, Eſqrs.) in the Pay of this Government, arrived ſafe in the Upper Cherokee's Country, and began the Fort to be built there on the 4th ult. whereon upwards of 100 Men are daily employed: That the Indians appeared highly ſatisfied and joyous upon our People's Arrival among them, but more eſpecially upon the Fort's being begun; brought in Refreſhments from all Parts; and have given them a fine Spot to plant on: That the Little Carpenter had deferred his Journey hither, purpoſely to go in Queſt of a diſaffected Party, and determined not to return without a Priſoner to inform us what the French are doing: And, that he was actually gone out with a Number of Warriors, and had placed his Wife and Children under the Protection of Capt. Demaré, to whom he alſo recommended the Care of the whole Cherokee Nation; ſo that we are now freed from all Apprehenſions of his being loſt to us.

From the Lower-Creek's freſh Aſſurances have been received of their Friendſhip, and that it ſhall continue ſo long as the Sun ſhines, &c. And, from the Upper Nation, whither our Agent is gone, we may expect to hear ſhortly.

We hear, that Capt. Thomas Goldſmith is appointed to the Command of the late Capt. Cadogan's Independent Company.

By the Veſſels juſt arrived from Briſtol, Poole, and Plymouth, we have the following freſh Advices.—N.B. The Publication of this Day's Paper has been purpoſely delayed, upon the ſaid Veſſels appearing in Sight, in Hopes ſome of them would have brought a Confirmation of Galiſſoniere's Defeat.

LONDON, Auguſt 26.

A Deſcent upon the coaſt of Britany is talked of in common; but from good authority we are informed, that a much more important expedition will ſhortly be carried into execution.

London, Auguſt 28. Some regiments of foot which were lately ordered to march for Byfleet common, and be there encamped, are countermanded, and they have received orders to hold themſelves in readineſs to the mounting ſhoulder H S: A bay gelding, branded on the mounting ſhoulder S C. Whoever owns the ſaid creatures, may apply to John Skeen.

titioner's ſchedule, that part of his effects are mortgaged to Mr. Tobias Ford: IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, that the ſaid Tobias Ford to embark on the ſhorteſt notice, for which purpoſe the ſeveral officers have already joined their reſpective corps.

The men employed to get ready a train of battering cannon work extraordinary hours.

It is ſaid, that admiral Hawke put all the hands on board the 16 victualling ſhips he has taken in their way to Minorca, on ſhore in the iſland, to reinforce the garriſon with their ſtomachs.

London, Auguſt 31. Many letters by the laſt Dutch mail affirm the ſailing of the Toulon fleet: If ſo, as Toulon is only 3 days ſail from Minorca, news of an action may every day be expected. As Galliſoniere's credit ſuffered at this court for not having done us, in the laſt engagement, all the miſchief Byng gave him leave for, it is thought he will now endeavour to retrieve himſelf: and as we have no admiral Byngs now in the Mediterranean, the meeting of the two fleets would produce warm work.

The tranſports which are victualling with all expedition for 6 months, are, 'tis ſuppoſed, intended to carry troops to Minorca. The experienced governor of Gibraltar is ſaid to have undertaken to recover that important iſland with a very moderate ſtrength. Small iſlands, whoſe productions are inſufficient for the ſupport of their own inhabitants, muſt always fall before the good management of a ſuperior naval power. Minorca muſt now be entirely exhauſted of all kinds of its proviſions, and, if ſupplies can but be cut off for a little while, it will become an eaſy conqueſt. The number of the garriſon of St. Philip's being three times what we had there, will ſoon conſume the proviſions they found there, eſpecially as the half-ſtarved Frenchmen would be very ravenous at the firſt opportunity of having their bellies full of Engliſh beef.

Yeſterday admiral Knowles arrived at his houſe in Broad-ſtreet from Jamaica.

London, September 2 Laſt week a veſſel was diſpatched to Gibraltar, with ſome orders of great importance for the governor, immediately upon the delivery of which ſhe is to ſail with another packet to Sir Edward Hawke; this veſſel has ſome engineers on board to reinforce his fleet.

The government have certain intelligence of the Toulon fleet's being put to ſea, ſo that news of an action is every hour expected. We are aſſured that if all Sir Edward Hawke's ſtrength be together, he will only have a majority of one ſhip, and the weight of metal will be on the French ſide.

A battalion of the guards, &c. with a large train of battering cannon, with a great quantity of mortars, bombs, &c. are certainly going to be embarked on ſome important expedition.

The late report of a moſt bloody engagement, tho' greatly to our advantage, had no other foundation than a ſhip letter at Lloyd's coffee houſe, which came by the Flanders mail. It is ſuppoſed the perſons concerned in writing this letter, ſent over at the ſame time commiſſions for ſelling ſtock in the Alley.

The French have put on board their Toulon fleet many cannon of a very extraordinary ſize, which, perhaps, are principally intended for chain-ſhot againſt our rigging, in order that, if they cannot conquer, it may be in their power to eſcape by flight.
